TOP SEARET

- With Senator Huddleston's election defeat, Senator Leahy is in line to become Ranking Minority Member of the Senate Agriculture Committee. This may prevent him from becoming Vice Chairman of SSCI should Senator Moynihan retire.
- Senator Moynihan's travel plans currently include only Israel and Greece. He is still trying for a Polish visa.
- Planning for Senator Sam Nunn's (D., GA) late-November trip to India-Pakistan is proceeding, but with only Senator J. Bennett Johnston (D., LA) joining the CODEL thus far. Senator John Glenn (D., OH) may throw in with them soon. Senator Nunn will be seeking extensive Headquarters briefings circa 21-22 November, prior to his trip.

Public Affairs Office

- The AFIO Chapter of New York reported that your speech to their members on Friday, November, at the University Club was well received.
- PAO spent considerable time in an effort with Defense and State suggesting to media callers intent on playing up the MiGs-to-Nicaragua story that they should not jump to conclusions.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

Harry E. Fitzwater

Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT:

Weekly Report for Period Ending 9 November 1984

1. Progress reports on tasks assigned by the DCI/DDCI:

None.

- 2. Items/events of interest:
- a. The Office of Personnel briefed a visiting group of students from Albright College of Reading, Pennsylvania, on the recruitment program of the Agency and the variety of careers offered by the organization. The visit by the students and their professor was the latest in a series of presentations to college groups requested by the Public Affairs Office.
- b. Personnel from the Office of Data Processing provided Ambassador McNeil of the State Department's Bureau of Intelligence and Research (INR) with a demonstration on the capabilities of SAFE. The demonstration was requested at a meeting with representatives of the IC Staff and State Department where design options were reviewed and are being considered in the State Department's INR Information Handling Study.

c.	Planned	retirements	are	running	at	about	last	year's	rate.

d. Retirees will be receiving a 3.5% Cost-of-Living Adjustment (COLA) in their January 1985 annuity checks. In the past, the first notification to retirees of such increases was delivered by a payroll change slip from the Office of Finance at the time of the annuity change. In order to ensure advance notice to retirees, this year we will provide individuals with notification by including a short statement on the COLA in mass mailings being conducted in conjunction with the health insurance open season.
